Pedro: Yeah, it's good. Very roomy and lots of light.

Susan: Good!

Carol: What's the neighborhood like?

Susan: Oh, it's a very special neighborhood. There's a real mix of people here. There are older people, young families, and students. There are a lot of different cultures.

Carol: So, is it a safe neighborhood? I worry about that a lot, especially since I usually work quite late and come home when it's dark.

Susan: Oh, yes! It's very safe and quiet. There isn't much noise. Well, usually!

Carol: I'm more worried about crime. Is there much crime?

Carol: OK. That's good to know.

Pedro: We don't have a car, so what about public transportation?

Susan: The public transportation is excellent. It's just a few minutes to downtown. You can take a subway or bus – either is very convenient.

Carol: We like to eat out. Are there many restaurants and coffee shops?

Susan: Oh, yes. There are a lot of restaurants! Just take a walk down the street to the end, and you'll see. There are lots of Greek and Italian restaurants. There's Indian, Chinese, ... everything!

Carol: Sounds great!

Pedro: OK. We'll check them out on our way home. Thank you for your help.

Susan: It was my pleasure. Give me a call this afternoon because this apartment won't last long!

Carol: OK. Thank you! Bye.

Pedro: Bye!
